VOL. IV. NO. 223.

CHICAGO, TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

AGAIN AT HARLEM.

Harlem's re-opening was an auspicious one, everything combining to render happy both managers and patrons. The weather was fine, the track fair, the card away above the average.

This "fortnight about" of the rival local races suits the requirements of the racegoer to perfection. He who fancies as presiding judge a Kentucky Colonel rather than a Tennessee Captain has his inning this week, as also the man who thinks starting the horses with a recall flag is the better system. Haro to please indeed must be the racegoer that within a space of two weeks cannot accommodate his ideas.

As on one side of town one cannot get a transfer on the street railroads other than by asking for the same immediately he pays his fare, whereas "t'other side the creek" exactly the opposite policy is pursued; in any case the conductor is run down and the passenger lands at the place aimed at—so with racing.

The sore-footed will go to Harlem, where in the betting ring there are only board walks, while another man will stay away saying there is a chance of running a sliver in his foot, and two weeks later on be seen on the solid concrete at Hawthorne. One may argue that the grand stand at Harlem is so situated that the sun or rain is apt to kill the patron of the track. Another answers: "Men with money give no thought to weather conditions, and a broken man might as well be dead anyhow."

The soil of one track is soft, that of the other hard. This gives the handicapper a chance, and also furnishes to owners excuses for "in and out" running. What the public is alone interested in is the perpetuity of racing hereabouts, so that members of the race-going set will be kind enough to patronize whichever track they choose and cease to "knock" the other.

Close to post time for the first race Sweeney called in the betting ring, "Any man who can identify Jim Blackburn, will please step to the judges' stand," and Frank Phillips, who, early in the day had said that he knew the horse in California, showed up before Col. Clark and satisfactorily dispelled all doubts concerning him. "Bish" Poole said that forty men on the track knew the horse which has been running in Montana. Jim Blackburn opened at 12 to 1, but was at once knocked to 6, again advancing to 9 when the flurry came, then dropping again, finally landed at 5 to 1. He was last away to an excellent start, Hessville leading around the first turn, where Sauterne took up the running, and, never being headed or extended, won the race as he pleased from Inconstancy, second the last half mile. Double Dummy finished third, Tonto fourth and Jim Blackburn fifth. The latter showed great speed and ran to third position at the far turn, being then within four lengths of Sauterne, but here commencing to fall back. Tonto was next the last horse at the first three-eighths.

With Spirituelle scratched from the second race it looked a certainty for Frank Bell, but opening at 1 to 2 his price rose to 4 to 5, Tulla also dropping from 4 down to 2 to 1. At post time Col. Clark substituted Beauchamp for Bloss as the favorite, but the prices remained practically the same. At a breakaway all the horses except one left the post as if the race was on and did not pull up inside an eighth of a mile. Now 4 to 5 might be had against the favorite "on the curb," there being a false impression current that Frank Bell cannot go a distance. To show that he is "Hawkins' horse" and that Mr. McDowell did well to leave Spirituelle in the stable, the favorite got off in front, led always and won galloping. Boney Boy, off second, was soon outrun by Tulla Fonso and Huffman's filly was second to the last fifty yards, where J. Reiff brought up Miss Marks from the rear and ran right over Tulla Fonso, who, however, easily beat Boney Boy. Others not in sight. The story that made the price against Frank Bell ran to the effect that the colt had had little work for three weeks and lately has acted sour, "running out," etc. "Buck" Franklin said that yesterday morning Frank Bell jumped the fence, cut his mouth and lost at least a quart of blood. Therefore, when exactly at himself this colt may have a chance to beat all of his age.

Marzella ran out in front, Plantain second, and so the leaders in the third race made the far turn, where Plantain passed on and soon Marzella was beaten by Molo, who was close up fourth from the start. St. Alfonse D. also being a contender. At the head of the straight the race became a match between Plantain and Molo. Rose on the favorite was on the outside, the horses turning close to the inside rail, and he rode an excellent finish, having all he could do to keep the favorite from swerving in and hitting Molo. The latter, which appeared in the name and colors of W. Hoffman, being a strong finisher ran lapped on Plantain to the final sixteenth then fell back somewhat (probably on account of Sheppard tiring) allowing Plantain to win handily. Barataria came from the rear and beat Marzella for third money.

The Austin Selling Stakes, seven-eighths of a mile for 3-year-olds and upward, worth $1,440 to the winner, $200 to second and $100 to third, had engaged both Imp and Hugh Penny the participants in the great race at Hawthorne Saturday last, but here the gelding had a marked advantage in weights over the mare. She, "not to be sold," carrying weight for age, as did also Mary Black, whose 113 pounds looked as if sure to anchor even so good a three-year-old filly, conceding as she was eighteen pounds to Found, of her own age. The feather in the race was Ramiro II, a five-year-old horse, carrying 102 pounds. Unlike the stake races lately known to the Chicago tracks, here the horses carded all went to the post with the exception of Boanerges. The opening price showed Hugh Penny favorite at 2 to 1, it being 3 to 1 Imp. Next in favor stood Flora Louise at 6. Mary Black opened at 10 to 1 as did Found. Imp at one time stood at 4 to 1. She covered herself with glory by taking Mary Black by the head at flag fall, running her into the ground in the first five-eighths and galloping in front the remainder of the way, winning hands down. Dr. Sheppard was third for a time, then Flora Louise, but as the leaders ran head and head at the far turn, Found got to third place and never relinquished it, although at the wire she had a head finish with Mary Black. The way the race was run with the topweights out in front racing their heads off, was "duck soup" for Hugh Penny, and "Skeets" Martin kept him in a nice place waiting for the run in from the spot where the leaders should tire. But soon after striking the straight this jockey probably saw that Imp was not stopping, and, hurrying up, he had the old horse flying at the betting ring. The rush was of no account, however, further than to gain the second money, as Imp had all the others beaten by four lengths at the last sixteenth and finished two lengths better than Hugh Penny. Cherry Leaf, as usual, taken back at the start, did not have speed enough to beat this kind of a field, although finishing well up. Imp was loudly cheered as she came back to the judges' stand. Her performance was a most remarkable one.

Sutton won as pretty a race as has been seen in a long time, the horses bunching up closely Winner—B. f. by Springfield—Active.

Start good. Won driving. Prestigitatrice is not herself in hot weather and the last spell has affected her. She was not as good as in her previous race. Bangor is a coming crack and ran impressively. The others are inferior.

Winner—B. c. by Fonso—Savannah.

Start good. Won driving. Fonsavannah was probably best. He appeared to be sore however. The race is a poor one from every standpoint. Sensational found the deep slow going to his liking. His forte is mud, however. Filament was a good horse but had scant chance with his jockey. Watch Leedsville. He only wants a little luck and a jockey who understands him to run a good race and is good. Leando ran a good honest race with the worst of the weights. Murillo lacked speed. He is very unreliable except in mud. Glonoine had bad luck but ran well and was well handled. Wine Press had no speed.

Scratched—Banastar, 126; Handsel, 122; Endeavor, 104.

Fonsavannah, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Sensational, place, 4 to 1; show, 2 to 1. Filament, show, 2 to 1.

Time, 114, 234, 36, 49, 1:02, 1:08.

Winner—Ch. c. by Sir Dixon—Alpena.

Start fair. Won easily. Alpen was best and is certainly an extraordinarily fast colt. He is in good form and likes this track. Lindsay, perfectly handled and saved, ran a race which stamps her as of high class. Mr. Phinizy likes this track and will do better from now on. Satirist ran well but appeared to weaken the last furlong. Helen Thomas was outclassed but ran in a manner to indicate that she is at her best. King Barleycorn appeared to be anchored and lacked speed throughout. Dude of Middleburg could not concede the weight and is not apparently as good as he was.

Scratched—Ways and Means, 110; Yankee Man, 105; Handcuff, 100; Diminutive, 97.

Alpen, place, 1 to 2. Lady Lindsay, place, 6 to 1; show, 3 to 1. Mr. Phinizy, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Ch. f. by Sir Modred—Sweetbriar.

Start fair. Won easily. Briar Sweet was shut off at the start and outclassed her field. Irish Reel ran a high class race which would beat anything here except Briar Sweet. Alice Farley broke down. Fast Black ran in impressive style and will do to watch when placed properly.

Scratched—Bardella, 114; Kenmore Queen, 114; Frances Booker, 90; Diminutive, 90.

Winner—Ch. c. by Farandole—Blessing.

Start good. Won easily. Banastar showed phenomenal form. He was far the best, but favored in the weights and lucky and well ridden. The Winner appeared to be galloping on the backstretch. Macy carried his big burden gallantly and ran up to his best form. He will be a hard horse to beat hereafter. Clonsilla ran finely but was badly outclassed.

Scratched—Dr. Catlett, 114; Hanwell, 109; Decanter, 100; Oxnard, 100; Handpress, 100; Nosey, 97.

CHICAGO, ILL., SEPTEMBER 20, 1898.

RULED OFF PERSONS AND HORSES.

When the Hawthorne judges ruled Owner Meyers and Jockey Nixon off for the fraudulent running of the horse Tusculum they also specifically ruled off Meyers' other horses in addition to Tusculum, they being Filibuster, Obstinat Simon, Boardmarker, Frank Stanton, Getabout, Dayton Star, Sun Bonnet and Immense. This was by way of precaution to prevent these horses from presently bobbing up as the property of other people when in fact they might still be secretly the property of the man ruled off.

Rule 186 of American Racing Rules is, in part, as follows: "When a person is ruled off the course, or outlawed, and so long as his sentence continues, he shall not be allowed on the grounds of the course, or be qualified, whether acting as agent or otherwise, to subscribe for or to enter or to run any horse for any race, in either his own name or that of any other person; and no horse of which he is wholly or partly the owner, or which is under his care, management, training or superintendence, or in the winnings of which he has any interest, shall be qualified to be entered or run in any race."

Under this rule it is apparent that when a man is ruled off, his horses are ruled off also. At least that is the apparent intent of the rule. But it is lame and deficient in not specifically prescribing that all of a ruled off man's horses shall also stand ruled off until such time as the man himself may be reinstated.

In the case of Meyers it is quite clear that for the time being, at least, his simple expulsion without naming his horses would have barred them from the tracks along with him. But in the present vicious plane of western turf practices it is more than probable the sale of the horses, real or pretended, would have resulted in their early reappearance in races as the property of other owners. It was to wipe out this probability that Judges Rees and Kuhl ruled off by name each horse belonging to Meyers.

At its meeting in Cincinnati tomorrow the Turf Congress could do nothing better than to make rule 186 more specific in the direction referred to so that there should be no doubt that so long as a man stands ruled off his horses stand ruled off also. The penalty for running a horse without any intention to win cannot well be made too severe and judges should be relieved the necessity of providing remedies for inexplicit rules.

AGAIN AT HARLEM.

soon after entering the homestretch. The order away from the post was Uarda, Serena and Tranby, and the same trio led with the order changed at the first turn, where Prince Blazes, bumped at the start, was fourth, and Sutton and Swordsman last of a close bunch. Treachery moved to the head of the affairs at the far turn, closely attended by Uarda and Sutton, and so the straight was made. Serena had kept well up to the middle of the turn, but here fell away, she being the only starter that was already beaten except Roger B. The others formed a squadron nearly abreast at the last three-sixteenths, Tranby having taken a shoot to the outside and lost ground. At the final eighth all were driving except Treachery, but here the favorite swerved with J. Reiff, striking Friar John and destroying his chance. From the middle of the track Treachery kept working over, and eventually landed under the timers' stand in second place, Sutton winning and Tranby finishing third, with Uarda and Hosi close up.

Mr. Johnson, "a real good thing" according to Frank Phillips, had no trouble in winning the last race, on the end, although Good Hope and Ostra led him for a time. Rose brought Delong's horse close in on the rails turning for home and Good Hope was beaten at the betting ring, finally losing the place to Diggs. Ostra, Borden and Organ Pilot were well up.

Friends of John Condon will be glad to know that the announcement of his total blindness was premature. Charles J. Miers, Mr. Condon's confidential man, says that his principal can see as well as at any time for the past year and that, although troubled with a bilious attack, he will be out in a day or two.

The order of Col. Clark restricting, J. Reiff to two mounts each day, has not been rescinded. Yesterday the "infant phenomenon" rode five horses by special permission of the presiding judge.

Twenty regular bookmakers cut in for two days, despite the announcement by Sweeney: "No dollar bets taken in the big ring." There were two field books.

Winner—B. f. by Kinglike—Juliette.
Start perfect. Won driving. L'Alouette was lucky and perfectly handled. Lambent was run into the ground chasing Blarneystone. If saved, she might have won. Macco closed from tenth place in the last quarter and with any kind of luck couldn't have lost. He was easily the best horse in the race. Campania, from today's showing, must be in winning form. Watch her at a mile with light weight up. Tremargo ran well. Hanlon is in good form. Tom Collins ran poorly and stopped at the end. Kitefoot looks good. Momentum had but little chance with his jockey.

Scratched—Don Blas, 108; Fonsavannah, 103; Troiley, 103; Tabouret, 101; Blissful, 98; Queen of Beauty, 98.
L'Alouette, place, 2 to 1; show, even. Lambent, place, 8 to 5; show, 4 to 5. Macco, show, 1 to 2.

Winner—B. g. by Tremont—Semphore.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second and third doing their best. Sauterne had the speed of the party. He was nicely rated in front and ran a clever race. This horse runs best in front but heretofore has shown a disliking for a distance. Inconstancy had to make up a lot of ground the first part of the journey. This told on her and she weakened badly at the end. Double Dummy came from far back the last quarter. The ride on Tonto was rather weak. Throw his race out. Jim Blackburn, heavily played, showed some speed. Greyhurst is a bad horse these days. Sunburst ran a fair race. Greyhurst wore one bar plate. Sauterne, place, 3 to 1; show, 3 to 2. Inconstancy, place, 4 to 5; show, 2 to 5. Double Dummy, show, 2 to 1.

Winner—B. g. by Big Henry—Flora Leach.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won hand ridden. It was a long hard drive for the place. Frank Bell was the best, but was brought to a drive right at the end. He is a fine youngster. Bloss was scheduled to ride him, but on the way to the post the judges took him down and substituted Beauchamp. The latter almost threw the race away. He evidently forgot about the recall flag and at the first break raced Frank Bell away at top speed. Boney Boy and Wing also raced away with him. Miss Marks would have given the winner a stout argument had she been given a better start. Reiff was slow to get her going but the filly was running great guns at the end. Tulla Fonso was killed off chasing Frank Bell. She is not a game filly and swerved when the pinch came. This race will do Boney Boy good.
Scratched—Sphituelle 110; Falomacita, 97; Pearl Barnes, 102; Espionage, 110.
Frank Bell, place, 1 to 3. Miss Marks, place, 2 to 1; show, 3 to 5.

Winner—Ch. g. by Knight of Ellerslie—Banana.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won with considerable left after an early drive; the next two were driving hard. The ride on Plantain was a peculiar one. It looked as though Rose would fall off at the finish. He evidently tried to draw it fine and almost threw the race away. The judges asked the boy what the matter was after the race, and his reply was "nothin." The colt bore in some on Moio at the head of the stretch, but not enough to cause trouble. The latter ran a good race. So did Barataria, who laid far out of it the first part of the journey and finished strong. St. Alfonsos D. dislikes a route. About three-quarters in the mud is his best race. Marzella stopped badly on the far turn.
Overweights—St. Alfonsos D., 3 pounds.
Molo, place, 2 to 1; show, 7 to 10. Barataria, show, 3 to 1.

Winner—Blk. f. by Wagner—Fondling.
Off at first break to a good start. Won easily; second driving; third and fourth driving also. Imp is a wonderful filly. Considering the hard race she had Saturday and the amount of weight she was giving away her race was a phenomenal one. She seemed good and fresh and had speed to loan. Rutter handled her well, going every quarter about alike. Hugh Penny had some bad luck in the race, but not enough to keep him from winning. He was obliged to take the long route, but by doing so got the best of the going. Found was right there all the way and out-gamed Mary Black for third place. The latter handled her weight nicely and had a lot of speed. She dislikes a route. Cherry Leaf was shut off and obliged to pull up at the start, but was running fast at the end. Dr. Sheppard used what speed he had early. Flora Louise was high in flesh and not ready. She has had but one work-out in two weeks.
Imp, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Hugh Penny, place, 7 to 10; show, 2 to 5. Found, show, 3 to 2.

Winner—Ch. c. by Red Iron—Lilly Wright.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden; the next three were driving hard. Sutton ran a clever race. He looked beaten passing the stand, but made up ground rapidly down the backstretch. He is an in and out, but was a good horse today. Treachery swerved badly in the stretch, but for that she might have won. Little Reiff was evidently tired out and was unable to hold the mare straight. Tranby was shut off down the backstretch and made up a lot of ground, finishing very strong. Hosi ran his race the first mile. He runs best from behind. Watch Uardia closely. She was short and was badly interfered with when Treachery swerved. Prince Blazes was poorly ridden. Serena ran kindly and showed some speed. Friar John's race was below the notch. He was badly interfered with when Treachery swerved. Scratched—Morte Fosse, 107; Muskadine, 97; Cutter, 100; Bethlehem Star, 94; King's Highway, 97; Elidad, 103; Sir Hobart, 94.

Winner—Ch. c. by King Alfonso—Girofia.
Off at first break to a fair start. Won cleverly at the end; the next four were all driving hard. Mr. Johnson is a good colt over a distance of ground. He was best ridden and saved a lot of ground on the stretch turn. It is partial to soft going and found it in close to the rail. Diggs came wide on the turn and looked all over a winner at the eighth pole, but could not stand the pressure at the end. Good Hope tired some under a loose ride. Ward was wabbling all over her at the finish. Ostra ran out on the turn for home. This may have lost her the race. Borden wants a soft track to do his best, but ran more than a fair race. Everett got Our Hope away flying and he had no excuses. Organ Pilot can do better.

Overweights—Aspasia II., 2 pounds; Louise, 3.
Mound City, place, 1 to 2. Dashaway, place, 6 to 5; show, 3 to 2. Conan Doyle, show, 5 to 1.

Winner—B. c. by Eberlee—Ramona.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. The first six were in a hard drive. Mathews' stronger finish told at the end. Undue swerved at the stretch turn and finished on the rail. Rafaello ran well, but was a trifle short. Ernespie tired in the stretch as usual. Candadas fell at the half mile ground, interfering with Cuirassier, Jack Gay, and Tortugas.

Winner—B. h. by Hindoo—Kissengen.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. While the pace was very hot for this kind, Royal Choice, who ran kindly, was equal to it and ran a smashing race and is at his best right now. Caius is getting good and will hold his own hereafter with this class. Pop Dixon is improving. Barton was used too much the first part. He likes to trail. Hungry Hill is also improving.

Overweights—Royal Choice, 4 pounds; Caius, 2.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily. The next four were driving hard. Georgie did not favor the route and quit badly. Her last race probably dulled her speed. Frances D and Crinkle also quit. Yakima's improvement was very sudden. Aureole ran a good race. Rosa M-SSO closed a big gap, but was shut off in the stretch.
Overweights—Preliminary, 4 pounds.

Winner—B. m. by Fordham—Virgie Wright.
Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second the same. Evaline should have been sent to the front sooner. The weight seemed to stop Fresco. He en H Gardner got so far away from the others before the mile was reached that they could not catch her. Lyllis and Ray H were pumped out chasing the winner. Mellie had no speed. Rifle finished strong. There was a heavy plunge on Prosecutor, probably on account of his rider. He would not extend himself.
